

Public Programs – Spring 2018

To coincide with our 2018 Spring season of exhibitions please join us at UNSW Galleries for a series of public programs.

Panel Discussion: In Pursuit: exhibition-making now

Wednesday 24 October 11:30am-1pm

Where do early career and independent, curators fit in to the exhibition-making landscape? In this panel discussion we hear from curators with a range of experiences pursuing definitions of what exhibition-making is, and what it can be.

PANELLISTS: Glenn Barkley, Yarran Gatsby, Nanette Orly, Conor O’Shea, Talia Smith

MODERATOR: Consuelo Cavaniglia

WHERE: UNSW Galleries, Oxford Street (Cnr Greens Road) Paddington

FREE

Panel Discussion: Where to from here?

Thursday 25 October 5.30-7pm

'Emerging' and early 'career' are terms that don't speak to a single point in an art career. To start on the road to an art practice doesn't mean an uninterrupted flow - how do artists define themselves as fitting within these descriptions?

PANELLISTS: Chelsea Lehmann, Sophia Kouyoumdjian, Shireen Taweel, Emily Parsons-Lord, Lisa Sammut

MODERATOR: Esther Anatolitis, Executive Director, NAVA

WHERE: UNSW Galleries, Oxford Street (Cnr Greens Road) Paddington

FREE

Artist Talks and Performance

Saturday 3 November, 11am

David Eastwood

Rochelle Haley (artist talk and performance)

James Nguyen

Georgia Saxelby

WHERE: UNSW Galleries, Oxford Street (Cnr Greens Road) Paddington

FREE