

UNSW Art & Design

Fine Arts (Honours) 4526

Fine Arts (Honours) is a one-year program intended for high achieving students who have completed an undergraduate degree in fine arts (or similar area), either from UNSW Sydney or another university. The degree allows you to advance your artistic practice by developing a significant practice-led research project in a rigorous and supportive community of artists.

	1 Year Honours
	T1	T2	T3
Studio Research Project (3)
Deepen your artistic practice by undertaking a substantial practice-led research project examining the creative processes, contexts, ideas, and questions that interest you.
Research Skills (1)
Specialised training in the key discourses and methods relevant to contemporary art will help you to make connections between theory and practice as you undertake sustained independent research.
Professional Experience (1)
Leverage our extensive industry networks and gain real world experience by engaging with one of the longest running and professional experience programs in the country.
Supported by coursework in art theory and professional practice, the program supports you to develop an in-depth understanding of the relationship between theory and practice in contemporary art contexts.

Careers

Graduates of the Bachelor of Fine Arts and Fine Arts (Honours) programs are equipped with creative and critical skills that are applicable and transferable to a wide range of careers in the creative and cultural industries including:

- Art direction, advertising and communications
- Arts and cultural administration and policy making
- Arts education and training
- Arts writing, publishing and criticism
- Commercial photography and photojournalism
- Contemporary art practice
- Curating and program management in festivals, museums, galleries and public spaces
- Exhibition planning, design and installation
- Entertainment, media and technology industries
- Theatre, film and television production
- Urban planning, site activation and public art

The Fine Arts (Honours) program also provides a launching pad to further study in a Masters by Coursework, Masters by Research, or Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) program.

